BUILD YOUR DOOR

Creating the home you've envisioned can begin by following a few simple steps. For assistance or advice, we encourage you to ask your nearest sales associate. They'll be happy to help you find or order the right door for your home.

ENTRYWAY CONFIGURATIONS

It's time to configure your entry door. Choose one panel or two, sidelites and/or transoms; the options are truly limitless. In this way your exterior door is not just an entrance, but a creation of your own, engineered to your exact preference.

Single Door

Double Door with Optional Elliptical Transom

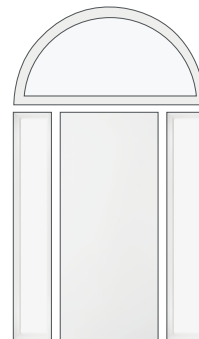

Single Door / Double Sidelites with Optional Rectangular Transom

Single Door / Double Sidelites with Optional Elliptical Transom

Single Door / Double Sidelites with Optional Segmental Transom

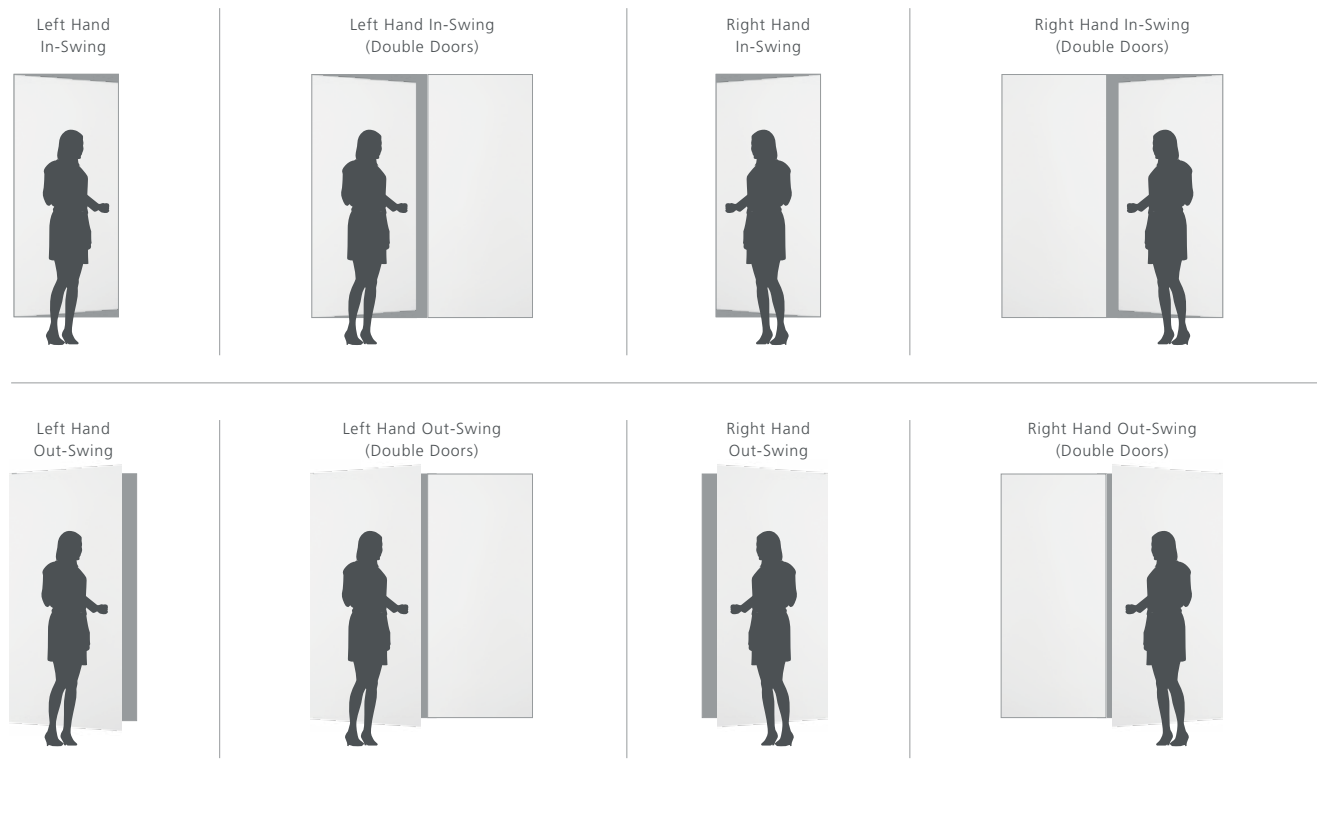

Single Door / Double Sidelites with Optional Half Round Transom

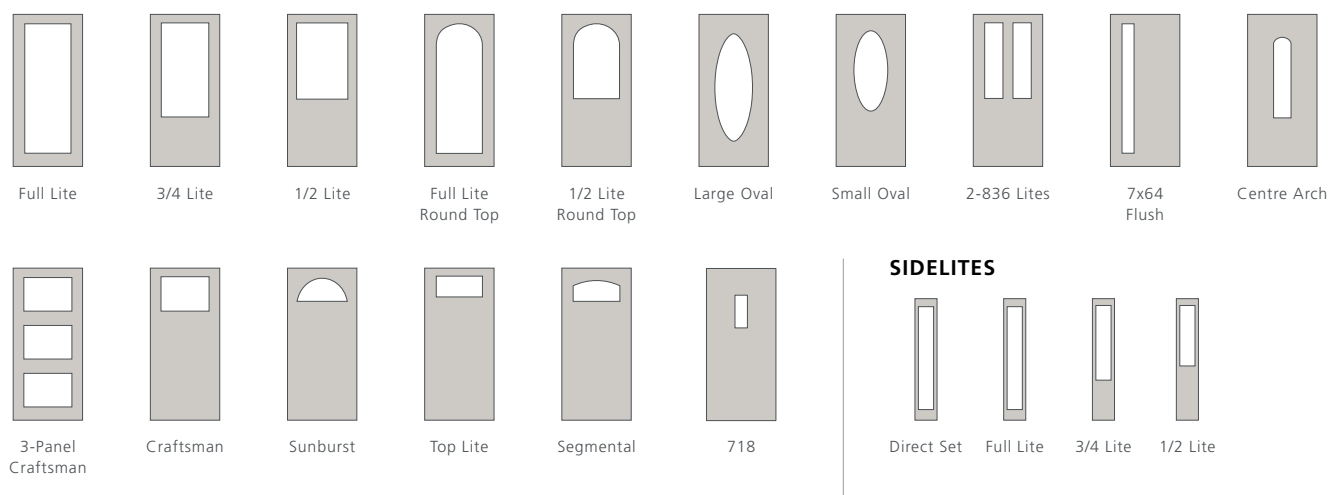

DOOR SWING CONFIGURATIONS

The function of your entry door should accommodate the layout of your home. That is why we offer entry doors in a variety of single and double door swing configurations. Need additional space in your foyer or on your front porch? Customize your entry door to swing inwards or outwards, whichever meets your requirement. For a wider entry system, install inward or outward swinging double doors.

JELD-WEN® doors can be installed for right- or left-handed operation (as viewed from outside the home).

GLASS SHAPES

TEXTURED GLASS

A versatile and valuable option for exterior doors, textured glass offers unique benefits for homeowners. It allows natural light to flow freely into the entryway, bringing life to one of the home's most important spaces. Its reduced transparency helps deliver an appreciated level of privacy and also helps create a refined aesthetic. JELD-WEN® offers a wide range of textures to meet your preferences.

TEXTURED

BLANCA

Enjoy a high level of privacy with Blanca. It offers an understated backdrop with a surface that is frosted and slightly stippled. A versatile choice that can fit into any space.
